

Have you had a good look at Kgalagadi's new Wilderness Camps?

The wilderness camps of the Kgalagadi Transfrontier Park offer the visitor an exciting new way of looking at the Kalahari. The six unfenced camps allow you to feel at one with the red desert sands, with the famed black maned lions, majestic gemsbok, pronging springbok, eland and great herds of wildebeest.

Each camp has its own waterhole which attracts any number of animals and large flocks of birds.

The fully equipped chalets are the perfect base from which to get up close to the ever alert meerkats, scurrying ground squirrels and the unusual whistling rats and luminous blue headed agama.

But don't take our word for it, book now and come see for yourself!
