

NEW RULE ON TRAVELING THROUGH THE KRUGER NATIONAL PARK TO AND FROM MOÇAMBIQUE

From 01 December 2011 traveling to and from Moçambique (via Giriyondo or Pafuri border posts) through the Kruger National Park will only be allowed if proof of official overnight accommodation in the Kruger National Park or Limpopo National Park is provided. The following rules will apply for visitors wanting cross the borders at Giriyondo and Pafuri border posts:

1. A minimum of one night stay in either Kruger National Park or Limpopo National Park is required to be allowed to pass through the Giriyondo or Pafuri border posts. If documentary proof of such booking in the official overnight accommodation within these two parks cannot be provided, visitors will not be allowed to cross these two border posts. The date of such official booking must correspond with the date of crossing one of the border posts in that the date of the booking must either directly precede or directly follow the date of the official accommodation booking.
2. To accommodate visitors that already finalized their holiday plans in Moçambique, planning to travel via the Kruger National Park but cannot find accommodation in either the Kruger or Limpopo National Parks have the option to pay a surcharge of R150 per person if proof can be provided that no accommodation is available in either of the two National Parks. This option will only be available for an interim period of six months, starting on 01 December 2011.
